

The Purpose of HSACCC

Enhance student success by the support and promotion of quality health service programs throughout the California Community College system.

Goals:

- A. Establish professional qualifications and program standards within the college health setting.
- B. Provide consultation, leadership and support for health services programs.
- C. Promote and facilitate continuing education for health services professionals.
- D. Monitor legislation that affects health services in California Community Colleges.
- E. Promote communication and support between health services professionals in California Community Colleges.
- F. Conduct and publish research.